Regarding the Application Before the Historic Preservation Review Board for Historic Landmark status for Rock Creek Valley Historic District
 (Reference Case 14-19)

WHEREAS, an application has been submitted to the Historic Preservation Review Board for an expansion of the current Rock Creek Park Historic District Landmark status; and

WHEREAS, the proposed expansion would include federal Reservations 308A, 356, 339, 402, 432, 433, 545, 563, 630 and 635 and would thereafter be known as the Rock Creek Valley Historic District; and

WHEREAS, the expansion would provide a green buffer zone around the historic district; and

WHEREAS, it would protect historic buildings such as the Rock Creek stables and the Nature Center and would protect trails created in 1972; and

WHEREAS, it would further protect some bridges, street lights and other features in the park:

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that ANC3C has no objection to the expansion of this historic landmark as outlined in the application; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Chair or other Commissioners as the Chair may designate are authorized to represent the Commission on this issue.
